Notice

Currently, all travelers entering South Korea are subject to a 14-day mandatory quarantine.

If this entry restriction is still in place when the SIIF opens, we are concerned about whether overseas participants will be able to come to Korea.

In this case, the exhibition will be mainly held online as follows:

- 1) Offline booths will be set up for the participants as planned
 - Exhibition displays will be installed in the respective country's pavilion
- 2) Information about the inventions will be posted on the SIIF website
 - 'Web catalogue' will be made available, including the original directory book
- 3) Parts of the exhibition will be live-streamed, including the final awards ceremony
 - Real-time communication with judges, buyers, and visitors

*Certificates and medals will be mailed to participants.

*Participants who have already registered for the SIIF but do not want to take part in an online exhibition will have the option to cancel their registration.

8. Advertisement in the official exhibition catalog (option)

The official exhibition catalog will contain information on the participants' exhibits for SIIF 2020. 10,000 copies will be distributed to visitors, individual inventors, enterprises, and invention related organizations all over the world.
